Plant Our Superior Bulbs This Fall . . . AUTUMN 1947 For Fine Flowers Next Spring . . . ORDER NOW!

THE HARMON NURSERY

This year we can supply you with fine Spring flowering bulbs from Holland. Tulips, Hyacinths and Crocus. Enjoy their beautiful blooms in your garden next year. These bulbs are hardy. Plant them this fall and they will bloom next Spring and will bloom again each Spring for many years.

Tulip Bulbs

Plant these fine bulbs in fairly rich soils. If the soil is poor, put some bone-meal under the bulbs. (Sheep manure or cow manure is good too.) Cover the bulbs with at least five inches of soil. Bulbs should be planted 6 to 8 inches apart. Tulips are easy to grow and their rich colors make a beautiful show in May. Order now. Plant this fall.

Keizerkroons—Yellow and Red

Outstanding Varieties

We can highly recommend these as well worth your planting. Large flowers, rich colors and outstanding in performance.

All of the following varieties (not less than three of one variety) 3 for $.45; six for $.85; dozen $1.75

LORD CORNOVAS—Deep rose shading pink with white margin. Large flower, very pretty.

DIDO—Light jasper red with topaz and amber edges, yellow base. A beautiful variety.

BLUE PARROT—A new color. Large blue flowers with fringed edges.

CORDELL HULL—A beautiful new Rembrandt. Rich dark red with full deep petals beautifully striped with lighter red and white. Unusually pretty and very new. Named after our famous statesman by the Holland Bulb Growers Society.

DENBOLA—A triumph tulip. Large flowers of violet-red wine with a creamy white edge. Very beautiful and different. One of the best.

RED EMPEROR—A new early tulip of the brightest red. Long flowers and large. One of the largest and most beautiful. Long stems and long lasting. A few of these will make a startling effect in your garden.

KEIZERKROONS—A great favorite. Large strong flowers of fine scarlet with a broad golden edge. Early and long lasting. Long stems. This makes a beautiful variety for permanent plantings.

FANTASY—A parrot tulip with large flowers and fringed petals. A beautiful salmon pink with green markings and deeper shades. Strong stems. Very popular.
